Getting Started

Introduction

This workbook was designed to turn the reading of Leading in the Spirit – Volume 1 into a transformation you can see and feel. Use it to slow down, reflect, and apply each principle to your daily leadership life.

How to use it:

- Read one devotional or one theme per week.
- Reflect, write, pray, and set one small action.
- Revisit your notes at the end of 30 days to celebrate what changed.

Theme 1: Identity & Calling

"Who am I when no one is watching?"

Reflect

- What parts of your identity come from titles or roles?
- Where do you sense God reminding you of who you are beyond work?

Action Step

Write a single-sentence mission statement that blends your faith and leadership purpose.

Prayer Prompt

Lord, remind me that my identity is found in You, not in position or praise. Amen.

Theme 2: Misunderstood Moments

Turning criticism into clarity.

Reflect

- Recall a time you felt unseen or misread as a leader.
- What truth did God reveal through that season?

Practice Tool

Reframe → "What if this misunderstanding is preparation for influence?"

Action Step

List two conversations you'll revisit with humility and clarity this month.

Theme 3: Faith & Action

Vision without movement is wishful thinking.

Reflect

- What goal has been sitting in prayer but not in motion?
- What's the smallest next step you can take today?

Worksheet

Vision	First Step	Timeline	Partner in Prayer

Prayer Prompt

Lord, teach my hands to work as my heart believes.

Theme 4: Handling Opposition

When resistance appears, wisdom must rise.

Reflect

- Who or what has challenged your peace recently?
- What lesson or boundary is being revealed?

3-Step Tool for Opposition

Pause

Pray before reacting.

Protect

Guard focus, not ego.

Proceed

With grace and truth.

Action Step

Write one affirmation for each "Alexander" or "Judas" season you've faced.

Theme 5: Finding Balance

Leading without losing yourself.

Reflect

- What habits drain your energy fastest?
- Where can you schedule sacred rest each week?

Balance Tracker

Domain	Current Health (1-5)	Desired Next Month	Action to Improve

Prayer Prompt

Lord, teach me to rest as an act of faith, not guilt.

Theme 6: Imposter Syndrome & Confidence

Grace over self-doubt.

Reflect

- What achievement do you downplay out of fear?
- Whose opinion carries weight when it shouldn't?

Tool: "Truth Swap" Sheet

Use this sheet to identify limiting thoughts and replace them with faith-based truths.

Limiting Thought	Faith Truth to Replace It

Action Step

Write a 3-line testimony of one area where you've already grown — reread it daily.

Theme 7: Words & Witness

Your language carries life.

Reflect

- What tone dominates your meetings or home?
- How can you "speak life" this week?

Quick Exercise

Circle which quality you'll practice: [ Encouragement ] [ Clarity ] [ Grace ] [ Truth ]

Action Step

Draft one sentence you'll speak intentionally tomorrow to lift someone.

Theme 8: Seasons of Waiting & Timing

Delay is not denial.

Reflect

- Where have you felt delayed or stuck?
- What might God be preparing in that silence?

Faith Cue:

Journal a "thank-you in advance" prayer for what's unseen.

Verse: Habakkuk 2:3 — "For the vision awaits its appointed time..."

Theme 10: Transition & Renewal

Tying it all together.

Reflect

- What patterns or mindsets are ready to end?
- What new habits mark your next season?

Mini-Plan

Use your 30-60-90 Transition Map to design your next quarter.

Closing Prayer

Lord, thank You for the growth behind me and the grace before me. Let every next step reflect Your wisdom and peace. Amen.

Final Reflection: Evidence of Growth

Leading in the Spirit: Foundations of Leadership is a 30-day devotional for leaders who want to lead from a place of divine alignment rather than personal ambition.

With a voice both seasoned and spiritual, Dr. Linda Cureton—former NASA Chief Information Officer and CEO of Muse Technologies—invites you to rediscover leadership as a sacred calling shaped by God’s presence, not by position or performance.

Each daily reading blends Scripture, lived experience, and reflection, helping you slow down, listen deeply, and lead with authenticity and grace. These pages are written for those who understand that leadership is not a title to hold, but a trust to steward.

Inside, you’ll discover:

- How to discern God’s voice in seasons of uncertainty.
- Why the wilderness is not punishment, but preparation.
- The spiritual disciplines that build integrity, courage, and clarity.
- The beauty of resting in God’s timing instead of striving for your own.
- How divine calling transforms ordinary work into sacred influence.

This is not a manual for management—it’s a companion for the soul of the leader. Each day invites you to exchange burnout for balance, pressure for peace, and control for communion with the Spirit.

If you’re ready to reconnect your leadership to the presence and power of God, begin this 30-day journey.
